

TOM WILLNER

Speaker
Cancer Survivor
Musician

— Creating Inspiration and Compassion —

When Tom was diagnosed with cancer, he wrote songs that ultimately became a full musical about his experience. Later, he began to use his story and musical to inspire and teach thousands of people about the patient experience, compassion for others, and the lessons learned through a life-threatening illness.

Past Clients

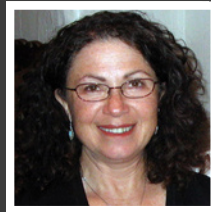

Testimonials

Linelle M. Blais, PhD

Executive Director, Emory University

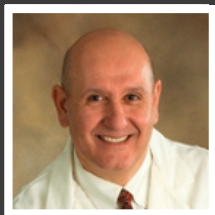

"Tom Willner delivered a truly creative learning experience for my students, and enabled my students to internalize the patient experience in a way that traditional learning could not."

Pamela M Peters, PhD

Director, Medscape Education, WebMD

"'Turning Thirty' is a truly unique program that is both impactful and unforgettable. I, along with the rest of the audience, was spellbound. Everyone should see 'Turning Thirty.'"

Muta M. Issa, MD, FACS, MBA

Chief of Urology, AVAMC

"Tom tells a story to be treasured, reliving his journey with humor, kindness and grace. A sure comfort for patients, loved ones, and healthcare providers alike."

Audience Members

"This was wonderful. Wow. Powerful presentation. Great speaker/music."

"The combination of education, storytelling and music was excellent. I am recharged by this presentation."

"Inspirational! AMAZING! Excellent!"

To Book Tom at Your Next Event, Contact Us or Connect With Us On Social Media

tom@tomwillner.com

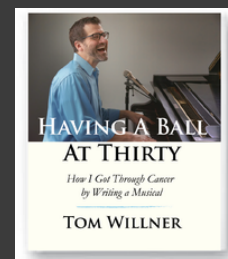

(404) 939-4866

tomwillner.com

@tomwillner

Tom's book is available at storiesandmusic.com